

Bellberry is an award-winning, national, independent Not For Profit organisation providing streamlined scientific and ethical review of research projects across Australia.

Animal ETHICS COMMITTEE

Bb Bellberry Limited
supporting research and ethics

We operate independent ethics committees to review, approve and monitor research involving humans and animals.

Bellberry provides assistance from pre-submission and AEC review through to ongoing monitoring, ensuring research meets the highest ethical standards of practice and scientific integrity.

We return surplus funds to the research sector supporting our aims of protecting the welfare of research participants and improving the quality, efficiency and effectiveness of research.

Our AEC Services

- Provide independent ethical and scientific review
- Focus on quality, efficiency, and timeliness
- Are supported by dedicated committee resources
- Operate in compliance with The Australian Code for the Care and Use of Animals for Scientific Purposes (8th edition 2013, updated 2021)

AEC Applications

Bellberry works with organisations requiring ethical review of animal research.

Contact our AEC team if you are:

- Sponsoring animal-based research
- An Investigator using animal-based research
- Wanting to become an Animal Ethics Committee member

Partnering with Bellberry includes:

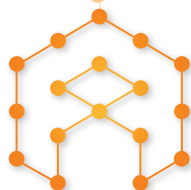

- Independent AEC review
- A clear and structured review pathway
- Support throughout the ethics process

To learn more about the regulatory processes towards working with an independent AEC, or a potential partnership for your animal research, please use our contact details overleaf.

Animal ETHICS COMMITTEE

Bb Bellberry Limited
supporting research and ethics

Becoming a Bellberry AEC Member

Bellberry AEC members provide reviews of pre-clinical animal studies towards human health as well as for animal health research.

Why Join an AEC?

- Contribute to ethical and responsible animal research
- Be part of an independent review process
- Gain access to structured induction
- Undertake ANZCCART animal welfare training
- Receive training on Bellberry's secure online systems
- Receive ongoing education and professional development
- Members' time and contribution are recognised

AEC Membership Categories

Bellberry welcomes applications from suitably qualified individuals across all states for the following Animal Ethics Committee membership categories:

- A: Veterinarians
- B: Research Scientists
- C: Animal Welfare Representatives
- D: Community Representatives
- E: Persons responsible for the daily care of animals (South Australia)

What to expect as an AEC member:

- Research applications available 10 calendar days prior to meetings
- Secure online access to all documents and correspondence
- Meetings commencing at 6:15pm

What we're looking for in an AEC Member

- Understanding of the Code and relevant research guidelines
- Strong communication skills, including the ability to consider and convey balanced viewpoints
- Sound ICT skills

FOR MORE INFORMATION

About Bellberry, our AEC or how to become a member

CALL OR EMAIL OUR AEC TEAM

+61 8 8361 3222
bellberryaec
@bellberry.com.au

www.bellberry.com.au

